

WCCS Adult Education and Ready to Work 2018 Awards Program

SELMA (July 25, 2018) — Wallace Community College Selma's Adult Education and Ready to Work Programs held its 2018 Awards Program on Wednesday, July 25, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. in the Earl Goodwin Theatre, located on the college's campus.

The keynote speaker for this year's graduation ceremony was Dr. Rolundus Rice, Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs at Alabama State University. Dr. Rice, a GED recipient, challenged the graduates, "No matter where you are or where you come from, you still can be successful."

"I am extremely proud of our graduates as they have overcome many obstacles to accomplish their goals. I am also excited about their future and the future of Wallace Community College Selma's Adult Education Program. The best is yet to come," said Dr. James Mitchell, WCCS President.
